THE DOINGS OF THE MAINE LEGISLATURE.

A Sifting of the Proceedings of the Past Week.

Augusta, March 27, 1911. The State highway commissioner has announced county road meetings to be held in April at the court houses in the shire towns. That for Oxford will take place on April 13.

An order has been passed for the Governor to appoint a commission of three attorneys to investigate the workings of the municipal and civil justice courts and recommend a uniform system and methods for the consideration of the next legislature.

The bill for compelling all school teachers to obtain State certificates has been referred to the next legislature.

The act to prohibit a foreign corporation manufacturing electricity in Maine by water power has been referred to the next legislature.

The legislature has voted to refer to the next legislature the Milliken bill for distribution of the State school funds on the basis of school attendance. It has indefinitely postponed the Osborn bill for distribution on the basis of school population. The killing of these two bills leaves the law as at present, with a portion of the fund distributed on the basis of valuation.

The bill for a uniform system of city charters met its death in the House last Thursday, by 85 to 5 votes. There were not enough in favor of it to secure a call of the yeas and nays.

The appropriation for general normal school expenses will be $75,000 a year, instead of $50,000 as originally recommended by the committee.

The Senate on Tuesday adopted the Democratic caucus program for referring to the next legislature the bills for aid in bridge and road building and for payment of State pauper claims. This was done after a sharp attack on the policy as one of "dishonesty" made by Senator Hiram of Oxford county, Milliken of Ansonia county and Staples of Knox county.

The program was defended by Senator Boynton of Lincoln county, chairman of the committee on appropriations and financial affairs. The test came on the Stoneham State paper claim, and the vote for reference to the next legislature was carried by 10 to 13. Five Democrats voted with the minority. Senators Staples of Knox, Denigan and Osborn of Somerset, Helling of Penobscot and Hannon of Wiscasset. Following the debate, Senators Hiram of Oxford and Denigan of Somerset had bills in which they were interested taken from the table, and referred to make motions for order on the next legislature. The motion to that effect was made by Senator Hannon and the program carried out.

The House Wednesday afternoon adopted the majority committee report in favor of repealing the State paper law.

Representative Allen of Jonesboro moved an amendment to the school fund bill, by providing that the State aid to high schools shall be taken from the common school funds and the remainder distributed on as general fund to common schools.

Representative Morley of Portland has offered an order for a special committee of two Senators and three Representatives be appointed to investigate the workings of the State school funds and report to the next legislature.

The bill for doubling the trunk lines of State highway was killed in the Senate Wednesday, leaving the matter in the hands of the State highway commission.

The bill to make nine hours a day a work for public laborers was defeated in the Senate on Wednesday, being indefinitely postponed on motion of Senator Blanchard of Franklin county.

The legislature has voted to kill the various schemes for ballot law reform, except the one providing for the casting of the ballot when the latest of the voter can be determined.

Indefinitely postponed—The bill for requiring mechanical safeguards on machinery.

Indefinitely postponed—The DeFor

LOCAL HISTORY.

Maj. Amos Hills. His Residence in Bethel.

Incidental Memoranda—By Leonard B. Chapman. Number 98.

I closed my article last week with the statement that Dea. Daniel Ingalls was the second settler of Shelburne, upon a farm lot located upon the southerly side of the Androscoggin river. The historian of Coos County, in which county the town of Shelburne is located, states that Daniel was much esteemed for his high moral character and that Moses, his oldest son was a sailor, "energetic, resolute, but rather rough," whose wife, Susan (Heath) Ingalls gave birth to four sons, named respectively as follows: Daniel, Frederick, ROBERT and Fletcher, but does not name any girls, though everything obtainable indicates there were girls in the Ingalls family.

Robert, the third son of Moses, took for his wife, Miss Rowena Hills of Bethel, daughter of Benj. Amos Hills who has been noticed in former articles. Of Robert the Coos County historian says: "He was one of the most prominent men in the place, filling many offices with honor and ability. He always recognized an acquaintance, rich or poor, high or low, with the same readiness and courtesy. He purchased the farm on Glenbrook Brook, cleared by the Evanses."

And of him, Mr. Algernon S. Chapman of Bethel a grandson of Maj. Hills states:

GRAND BALL AND EXHIBITION.

One of the pleasantest social events of the season was the exhibition and ball, given by Goodwin's dancing classes in the hall, Tuesday evening. Although the traveling was bad one of the largest crowds attended that we have ever seen at a ball in Oxford Hall. Coburn's Orchestra of Auburn furnished first class music for the occasion. The juveniles gave an exhibition at 8:15 o'clock that was well worth seeing and spoke well for Mr. Coburn's training. At 9 o'clock the grand march was formed, after which an order of eighteen dances was carried out to the satisfaction and extreme pleasure of all lovers of the dance.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis C. Billings Entertain a Host of Friends.

MR. AND MRS. JARVIS C. BILLINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis C. Billings of Bethel celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at their pleasant home on Mechanic street last Monday evening and despite the decidedly bad travelling the house was packed to its utmost capacity by friends and neighbors who joined heartily in extending congratulations and bidding them a happy journey to the next milestone, 25 years hence.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billings, Masters Louis and Clarence Billings, Mrs. Westworth and Mrs. Hodgkins, while as attendants in various capacities were Mrs. H. C. Rowe, Mrs. C. E. Valentine, Misses Glen Bassett, Ethel Randall, May Cross, Ellen Beth Barnes, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Lillian Stowell, Mrs. A. P. Copeland, and Mrs. Viella Small.

A record of these present was made but we regret that lack of space prevents our giving the list in full. There were over 250 present.

After the host of friends had been received and an hour had quickly passed in friendly greeting and viewing the many handsome and valuable presents, refreshments were served and then a short program consisting of a reading by Mrs. E. C. Vandenberg, vocal solo, "Put on yr old Grey Gownet," by Mrs. L. H. Wright, accompanied by Master Louis Billings, piano and the best of the evening, violin. This was featured by Mr. Billings taking the chorus and repeating on the second verse. An encore received ready applause.

The following poem was read by Mr. Newman.

It is with regret that we are sending
A written message to you tonight,
But sickness prevents our being present,
And trust these few lines will make it right.

Fifty years you have been married,
Ah me! how time does fly
Yet you are still drifting onward,
Keeping pace as time rolls by.

In the little village of Bethel,
Years ago you used to work,
Hoping by all the people round,
As "the man who will not shirk."

As a carriage maker and a blacksmith,
All praise you were prompt to fill,
You have long since moved to Bethel,
But the shop is standing still.

And how well do I remember
When you kept the office too,
You were busy with your own work,
But you had a helpline too.

She was faithful to her duty,
Always wore a pleasant smile,
And a kind word for us boys,
As she handed out the mail.

There are little acts of kindness
Yet childhood's memories always last,
And the pleasant smile she gave me,
I still remember, though years have passed.

Fifty years you have been married,
Fifty years in which to share
Each other's pleasure, care, and sorrow,
And you've had a part to bear.

You have reached the golden milestone,
Our congratulations we now send,

The experts, difficulty and extreme care taken by Mr. Penley in preparing the "Blue Tag Brand" pork products selected from the finest country pigs makes them such an exceptionally superior quality that once you get a taste you will never go back to the ordinary kind.

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time.
The doctors said I could not get well
without an operation, for I could hardly stand the pain in my abdomen,
especially my right side, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound, but kept on until I was able to stop too soon."

Mrs. RALPH MULLIN, 2708 N. H. St., Elwood, Ind.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drug cure, when they can get relief by taking three

OXFORD COUNTY SHERIFF QUESTION.

The law court announced its decision last Friday, in regard to the sheriff question. Judge Savage before whom the case was heard, gave the decision to Bartlett by three votes. The decision of the full court increases this to six.

In the September election, the Democratic candidate, Mr. Melville, was elected by nine votes and the matter went into the court through a bill of equity brought by Mr. Bartlett. We understand Mr. Bartlett has made two of his three appointments at Rumford, namely, L. L. Nile of Rumford and Leon M. Small of Mexico.

THE LENTEN SERVICES.

Rev. William O. Mann, who is to assist in the Lenten services which are to begin next Sunday at the Congregational church is a graduate of Colby College and of Bangor Seminary and has a B. D. from Yale.

Mr. Mann was also missionary for eastern Maine under the Maine Missionary Society for some years, and is well known and cordially recognized by scores of leading clergymen of various denominations.

He styles himself Pastor Evangelist, was chosen from the standpoint of the church and pastor and works for the permanent edification of the churches and community.

He is a gifted and eloquent preacher and presents a wise and winning message. Songs and hymns next Sunday at the Congregational Church. The evening service will begin at 7:30. Mr. Mann will preach at the morning service.

All citizens, even if they may not be church members, are cordially invited to join the church for these services under the direction of Mrs. Maud Edwards. There will be a rehearsal at 8:30 and church service at 9:30. Mr. Mann will be present to meet the church and will be glad to meet all.

COURT NEWS.

The March term of court came to close sooner than was expected, owing principally to the illness of County Attorney Parker, the criminal cases for actual trial going over to next term.

In the case of Mark Steinfeld of Rumford, for keeping and depositing intoxicating liquors with intent to sell, the judgment of the lower court was affirmed, and a fine of $100 and costs of $8.40 were paid.

In the case of A. Most (Chase of Woodstock for nuisance, fine of $100 and costs of $4.50 were paid. Salvatore D'Amico, Jay L. Gregory, and Fred Russell, all of Rumford, received each a sentence of $100 fine and $10 costs and sixty days in jail, or sixty days additional in default of payment of fine and costs, for keeping and depositing. All three were committed, without paying their fines.

Andy Peters, who had been fined for a single sale, was also committed for non payment. Sentence was asked for by the county attorney on an old indictment against Fred Price of Rumford. Mr. Blanchard, attorney for Price, contended that Price had been out of the liquor business for a long time, and that the liquor seized, on a basis of which sentence was asked for in this case, was not intended for sale, but for a wedding celebration. Judge Savage continued the case to the May term.

George H. Seavey of Bethel pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging criminal assault upon a girl of ten years of age. The case was continued until May. Seavey is in jail and has been for some time, and Judge Savage ordered that in case he wished to be admitted to bail, the bail commissioner should fix the bail at $1,250. In the case of the Holman brothers, who had pleaded guilty to breaking and entering and larceny from the grange store at Waterford, Judge Savage imposed light sentences. The younger, Alfred Holman, was sent to the State School for boys during his minority, unless sooner discharged on probation by the trustees; or if he could not be received there or become incorrigible, the sentence was to be thirty days in jail. The older brother, William, was too old to be sent to the school, and he became the breaking and entering was not proved, and Judge Savage imposed a sentence of thirty days in jail, with the suggestion that the sheriff look after him and keep watch of how he does after being released.

In the case of W. Whitney of Ber Lin, vs. Mrs. Elsie B. Pitts of Norway a suit brought to recover for a money debt ordered by Mrs. Pitts. At the conclusion of the plaintiff's evidence, counsel for the defense moved for a non suit, and after some argument the motion was granted. An appeal from the ruling was taken, and the case gone to the law court.

An appeal has also been taken in the first case for the term, the damage suit of Wesley P. Rowe vs. Hill Lumber Manufacturing Co., and this also will go to the law court. This leaves the cases heard by the jury during the term all in the law court except one, in which there was a dis agreement.

Total was anticipated in another civil case, a suit brought by Leon O. Irish of Hartford against Rufus Ames, cashier of Canton. Dyer for plaintiff, Swezey for defendant. The parties were on hand Tuesday morning, but after consultation, because as the case involved the settlement of a long and somewhat complicated account, decided to refer it to Judge Carle.

There was little else but discussion to occupy the time of the court on Tuesday, and the court would probably have adjourned Friday the day, but when a longer term was anticipated, some parties had been told that the court would be in session on Wednesday. For this reason the last session of the court was held Wednesday morning although essentially the only business was one dispositive hearing. Most adjournment was made about 11 o'clock.

During the term eighteen divorces were granted, and in a few cases a divorce was refused.

NEW ENGLAND ANIMAL FERTILIZERS

New England the Home of Good Corn
Not every one knows or realizes that New England produces better corn, and more to the acre, than the Western "Corn Belt" States. It's the result of intensive cultivation—the proper use of specially prepared fertilizers.

NEW ENGLAND CORN PHOSPHATE
contains just the right proportions of readily soluble plant food, rich in organic matter, for completing the growth of stalk and leaves, and filling out the kernels. It works freely in drill or planter, and makes CASH WINNING CROPS.

"There are other fertilizers, but the New England is good enough for me. I have used 100 bushels of corn per acre. All that I need for fertilizing you see is the New England per acre. You may see that corn was raised at the New England Corn Show at New Haven, and found to be a most valuable fertilizer." In 1909, my four and one half acres of land, I planted five hundred and forty bushels of corn on the same land, and raised a record of 100 bushels per acre. Next year I expect to do even better. L. C. SHAW, Hingham, Mass.

New England Animal Fertilizers are contributing largely to the success of New England Agriculture. Write today for our list of special Fertilizers with complete analysis, and our Crop Handbook. NEW ENGLAND FERTILIZER CO., Boston, Mass.

WORMS

DR. TRUE'S ELIXIR

Unsuspected worms are the cause of numerous little things that go wrong with children. When a child is sick you rarely think that he is sick because of worms, yet worms, either directly or indirectly, are the cause of these queerest of all the ills of childhood. Children, and sometimes adults, feel out of sorts, are irritable, feel nervous and worried in the morning, suffer with indigestion, have a variable appetite, feel lumpy, offensive breath, head and facial aches, with occasional eruptions and pains about the body, eyes heavy and sticky, itching of the nose, throat, dry cough, grinding of the teeth, slow sleep, and when, in children, convulsions—in the majority of cases the cause of all the trouble is worms, though you may not suspect their presence.

EASTER

This store has made special preparations for a large Easter business. We are showing everything that's new in men's fashionable attire. Each department is replete with the season's most wanted styles, and our exhibit of Adler's Collegian Clothes surpasses any line ever shown in this town. There's a thousand and one reasons why you should wear COLLEGIAN CLOTHES. They're Unlike Any Other Ready Made Garments. Young men who formerly had their clothes made to order, and who are now wearing ADLER'S COLLEGIAN CLOTHES, are better satisfied and are paying less money. Ask any man who has worn these garments.

We are showing many styles in the very newest fabrics—light, dark and medium. We guarantee a perfect fit before a suit leaves this store and make no extra charge for alterations.

Let Us Show You a Suit for Easter—Prices range from $10.00 to $22.00.
